

Welcome to Scott Ackerman Fine Pottery!

I specialize in creating functional pottery for every day use. Here, you will find information about the clay and glazes that I use. Also you will find information about upcoming shows and events, and occasionally some ramblings from a 43 year old potter. The collections page features pictures of some of the items that I produce along with current glazes that I use.

I hope that you enjoy what you find, and share this site with others. Feel free to contact me with any questions, suggestions, or any other comments. Also, please sign up for my newsletter in the Contact Me section. I will be sending out information periodically about upcoming shows, news items, and new glazes that I am using. I won't share your email address with anyone for any reason, period!
